Dear Friends:

In just its first five years, the Cabin Fever Throwdown has raised over $150,000 for Hospice of Wake County. More important than the dollars raised is the fact that those funds have provided more than 1,000 days of peace, comfort, and hope for patients at the end of their life and reassurance for their families.

The 2012 edition of Cabin Fever Throwdown will be held Sunday, February 26 at the North Raleigh Hilton and will again feature a great lineup of live bands, dancing, door prizes, auction items, food, and cash bar. And, once again, the proceeds will help ensure quality, compassionate care for the sick and dying through our hospice services and a safe, comforting place to heal for grieving families through our bereavement program.

On behalf of the David Hicks Family, the Raleigh Shag Club, and Hospice of Wake County, we would like to enlist your support as an auction donor to Cabin Fever Throwdown. In the coming weeks, a member of our planning committee will contact you personally as a follow up to this letter. We hope that you will be able to respond positively to their request.

Thank you in advance for your support.

Sincerely,
